

Saturday, April 11, 2015

9 AM TO 5 PM

A day of presentations and discussion about the San Lorenzo River watershed, with a particular emphasis on fisheries and water quality. Hosted by the City of Santa Cruz, County of Santa Cruz Fish and Game Advisory Commission and Coastal Watershed Council. (Bring your lunch.)

KEYNOTE SPEAKER JOHN LAIRD

Secretary for Natural Resources, State of California

FRED KEELEY Convener, Open Space Project, County of Santa Cruz

ROSEMARY MENARD Water Director, City of Santa Cruz

Santa Cruz Civic Auditorium, 307 Church Street, Santa Cruz

For information and to RSVP, visit us on Facebook

cityofsantacruz.com/water • 831-420-5200

COASTAL

State of the San Lorenzo Program Schedule, April 11, 2015

When	What	Who
9:00am	Introduction and welcome	Chris Berry, Rosemary Menard; City of Santa Cruz
9:10	State perspective on watershed restoration/ anadromous salmonid recovery	John Laird, State of California Natural Resources Agency
9:25	Local perspective on the San Lorenzo watershed restoration/ anadromous salmonid recovery	Fred Keeley, Santa Cruz County
9:40	Anadromous salmonid life history/ San Lorenzo habitat types/ general lagoon function	Jerry Smith, San Jose State University
10:10	Historical perspective on anadromous salmonid fisheries decline and coho recovery planning	Brian Spence, National Marine Fisheries Service
10:40	BREAK
10:50	Stream wood, fish passage and habitat complexity	Kristen Kittleson, Santa Cruz County
11:20	Andromous salmonid juvenile monitoring trends	Don Alley, consulting biologist
11:50	Anadromous salmonid spawning, coastal monitoring program	Jon Jankovitz, Department of Fish and Wildlife
12:20	LUNCH
1:20	Anadromous salmonid instream flow and lagoon population monitoring	Jeff Hagar, consulting biologist Chris Coburn, moderator
1:50	A decade of San Lorenzo lagoon dry season water quality	Nicole Beck, consulting water quality specialist
2:20	Citizen water quality monitoring	Greg Pepping, Coastal Watershed Council
2:40	Temperature and anadromous salmonid habitat availability	Kristina Finstad, City of Santa Cruz Water Department
3:00	BREAK
3:10	San Lorenzo watershed management, and water quality issues	John Ricker, Santa Cruz County
3:30	San Lorenzo River stream gaging	Anthony Guerriero, US Geological Service
3:50	Q & A	All
4:35	Closing remarks	Greg Pepping, CWC