INFORMATION:

On Saturday April 9, 2011 at approximately 6:15 pm, Santa Cruz police officers conducted a probation/parole search at a residence in the 100 block of Manor Place. The officers searched the residence and found narcotics packaging as well as drug paraphernalia. There were three people inside the residence who were under the influence of a controlled substance including Maureen May, Harvey Behrendt and James Craft.

Ms. May was arrested for being under the influence of stimulants and possession of drug paraphernalia. Mr. Behrendt was arrested for being under the influence of stimulants, possession of drug paraphernalia, a probation violation and elder abuse because he knowingly placed an elderly relative in a situation where her health could have been in danger due to the illegal drug activity which was taking place at the residence. Mr. Craft was arrested for being under the influence of stimulant.
