INFORMATION:

On March 26, 2012 at 7:35 pm the Santa Cruz Police Department responded to the report of residential burglary in progress in the 500 block of 2nd St. A neighbor in the area had witnessed a subject with black gloves on, climb up a shed on the side of an apartment complex and then pull himself up to a second story balcony. Several Santa Cruz Police Officers arrived and surrounded the apartment complex. The suspect was seen by the officers climbing down from the balcony back onto the shed. The suspect was ordered to the ground and safely taken into custody. The suspect was identified as Noah Brannan Rogers, an 18 year old resident of Santa Cruz.

Upon further investigation, it was determined that Rogers entered through an unlocked balcony door. Rogers had stolen alcohol from the residence. Nobody was home at the time of the burglary.

Rogers was booked into the Santa Cruz County Jail for 459 pc, Residential Burglary.
