Santa Cruz Police Conduct Shoulder Tap and Alcohol Enforcement Operation

On late Friday night and early Saturday morning Santa Cruz Police Department alcohol unit officers participated in a shoulder tap and general alcohol enforcement operation. A minor decoy stood outside of three businesses that sell alcohol and tried to get adults to purchase alcohol. In all, two people were cited for purchasing alcohol for minors while one was arrested for furnishing alcohol to a minor and an outstanding warrant out of Santa Clara County.

As part of the general alcohol enforcement, which was conducted downtown, two people were arrested for public intoxication and two were cited for open containers. Funding for these operations comes from a state ABC grant.
