INFORMATION:

The Santa Cruz Police Department is investigating an armed robbery that occurred at 7-11 Store, 2429 Mission St. The robbery occurred on March 1 at approximately 9:00 pm.

Two subjects entered into the store, with one carrying a rifle. The suspects confronted the employee pointing the rifle at the clerks head, demanding money. At gun point the victim opened the cash register drawer and gave the suspect an undetermined amount of money.

Both suspects were last seen fleeing southbound Swift St.

The suspects are described as two Hispanic males, 5'8" to 5'9" dark hair, medium build, wearing dark colored hooded sweatshirts, dark pants, and white tennis shoes.

A search of the area was conducted without locating the suspects. Officers contacted witnesses in the area, and are reviewing security camera footage in an attempt to identify the suspects.
