INFORMATION:

On 04/03/14 at about 2214 Hrs, officers responded to the 2400 block of Mission St for a vehicle versus pedestrian collision. The collision occurred in the north bound lanes of Mission St near the intersection of King St. The victim was transported to Dominican Hospital but was pronounced dead shortly after arrival at the hospital. The driver of the vehicle was not injured and was cooperative with police investigators.

Several witnesses were contacted at the scene. The pedestrian reportedly had left an alcohol outlet near the intersection and was struck while crossing Mission St. It appeared that the pedestrian was in the crosswalk at the time of the collision, however; the investigation is still in its preliminary stages. The exact cause of the collision is unknown at this time.

The Mission St (SR1) between Fair Ave and Swift St was closed for approximately 4 hours.

Any witnesses are advised to call the Police Department's Traffic Investigation's Unit at 831 420-5862 or the tip line listed below.
