INFORMATION:

On Wednesday January 9, 2019 Santa Cruz Police Detectives arrested Lorenzo Alex Silva (30 years old), for Assault with a Deadly Weapon. Silva is currently on probation in Santa Cruz through PRCS (Post Release Community Supervision) Silva was identified as the person who stabbed a parent at Depot Park, while they were with their child while at the park.

The victim reported being at Depot Park on January 8, 2019, with their child who was playing with another child. The victim was confronted by Silva, who inquired if they knew a female who was also at the park. The victim reported Silva did not believe them and he swung his arm at the victim, striking them. Silva fled the area on foot. Shortly thereafter, the victim realized they had been stabbed once in the arm, and drove themselves to the hospital for treatment. After being treated they went online and identified Silva through online booking photos, and notified police. After reviewing video and interviewing all involved, Silva was located, interviewed, and booked into jail for Assault with a Deadly Weapon.
