Santa Cruz Police Invites Community Input on Proposed Quality of Life Ordinances at Public Safety Town Hall Meetings on March 9, 11 and 12

SANTA CRUZ —The Santa Cruz Police Department will host three Town Hall meetings in March to get feedback from residents on the proposed Public Safety Quality of Life Ordinance Package. The town hall series takes place on:

Monday, March 9 at Delaveaga Elementary School
1145 Morrissey Blvd, Santa Cruz, CA 95065

Wednesday, March 11 at Loudon Nelson Community Center
301 Center St, Santa Cruz, CA 95060

Thursday, March 12 at Peace United Church
900 High Street, CA 95060

Each session takes place from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. The meeting is an opportunity for citizens to meet with Chief Mills and command staff. We will discuss city-wide public safety, an overview of police initiatives, and quality of life issues affecting neighborhoods.

Community engagement is essential in the development of the proposed Quality of Life Ordinance Package. Feedback is encouraged and sought from residents during the entire process.

To learn more about the proposed ordinances, including the opportunity to leave comments, questions, and suggestions, visit www.cityofsantacruz.com/PoliceTownHall.

Chief Mills Town Hall meetings are part of the Santa Cruz Police Department's efforts to promote citizen involvement in keeping with the City of Santa Cruz's commitment to transparency in every aspect of City government.
