INFORMATION

On Friday, July 1, 2021, at approximately 4:55 p.m. a male subject later identified as Beau Joseph Paepke (30 years) arrived at the Santa Cruz County Jail in order to turn himself in for an unreported homicide that occurred within the city of Santa Cruz. Santa Cruz Police Officers responded to the County Jail where they contacted Paepke and obtained enough information to confirm a homicide had in fact occurred and the location of the crime scene.

Officers responded to a recreational vehicle parked in the 100 block of Front Street where they discovered the crime scene and victim inside. The victim was a 33 year-old female subject living in the RV in the Santa Cruz area. The victim's identity is being withheld at this time pending notifications.

Santa Cruz Police Detectives were called to the scene and continued the investigation into the early morning hours. Following an interview of Paepke, he provided a full confession to the murder which took place on Monday, June 28, 2021, in the RV while parked in the 900 block of Soquel Avenue. Paepke was ultimately booked into Santa Cruz County Jail on a charge of 187(a) PC – Murder.

Detectives are actively working the case and processing evidence collected from the scene.
