All operators of for-hire vehicles must obtain a background check and approval from the Santa Cruz City Police Department, after City Council approval of the for-hire vehicle permit.

This application must be submitted to the Santa Cruz Police Department. You will need to submit for your background check:

- You will need to submit two (2) passport-size photos, and will be required to show photo identification.
- You will submit a printout of your 3 year driving record from the DMV that was produced within 30 days of when the application is submitted to the Police Department.
- A copy of your valid Driver's License.

 Renewals: Please submit your expiring pedi cab permit with this application and the supporting documents listed above.

If you have any questions about these requirements, call the Police Department at: (831) 420-5850.
